VICE PRESIDENT

Samuel W. Bacote III joined Jackson Securities in November 1995. His responsibilities as a municipal finance banker include financial analysis, document and proposal preparation, marketing and transaction processing. Since 1996, he has worked on municipal bond and note issues, including taxable bonds, worth over $10 billion for a variety of clients.

Prior to joining Jackson Securities, Mr. Bacote acted as a consultant to the Ministry of Finance, Government of Ukraine, C.I.S., where he evaluated pricing and distribution strategies for state enterprises prior to privatization. He also presented rationale to support the introduction of bills of exchange into the economy and provided framework for a presidential decree to address management of external debt. During a two-year U.S. Peace Corps tour in Ghana, West Africa, Mr. Bacote assisted in the supervision of a revolving loan program through PAMSCAD (Programme of Actions to Mitigate the Social Costs of Adjustment) and designed a revenue mobilization program to simplify income tax incidence. He also organized a school-based, numeracy and literacy-training program for refugees in Ghana from the Francophone Country of Togo, West Africa. Mr. Bacote is often recognized for his background and has appeared as panelist and keynote speaker to address issues of international investment and business development. He is a member of a senior advisory panel, which meets annually to address financial sector issues for Ghana's Vision 2020 Project. Mr. Bacote and his work are featured on a nationally aired Public Service Announcement for the Peace Corps and he has been named one of twelve Most Notable Returned Peace Corps Volunteers in Business.

Shortly after returning from Ghana, Mr. Bacote worked as a Christian Economic Coalition volunteer assisting entrepreneurial groups start a variety of businesses in a disinvested community in Boston. Since leaving Boston, Mr. Bacote has continued his active community, business and social involvement in his hometown of Atlanta. He is co-founder of Atlanta-based American Electronic Entertainment, one of the largest minority-owned sound and lighting production companies in the nation. Mr. Bacote is President of the Board of Directors of Alternate Life Path Programs; a Member of the Leadership Atlanta Class of 2000; President of the Metro-Atlanta Kiwanis Club; a Business Volunteer for the Arts through the Metro Atlanta Chamber of Commerce; a Big Brother for Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Atlanta, a Member of the Georgia Minority Supplier Development Council; a County Commission Appointee to the Economic Development Corporation of Fulton County; and, Vice President of the Board of Directors of Carilanta Players, a five-year old theatre company in Atlanta's Caribbean community.

Mr. Bacote, who holds the Series 7 and 63 SEC licenses, received the Master in Public Administration degree from the John F. Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University, where he was the Government Finance Officers Association's Public Investor Scholar for 1995. He also holds the M.B.A. from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and the B.A., cum laude in Economics from Morehouse College.
